

The Students for Sustainable Water would like to help end selling water bottle on campus by a student vote. The Students for Sustainable Water decided to go the initiative route rather than with the referendum. Getting student signatures will simultaneously raise awareness and gain support.

Here are two different wordings:

Should the students of Western Washington University recommend to the administration that the sales of bottled water cease on campus.

OR

Should students endorse the end of bottle water sales on campus