A. AS Election Code

(20 minutes)

Celis Doc. 1

Changes that are underlined were made by the AS Election Code Review Committee and the highlighted grey areas were changed by the Senate at the meeting Tuesday. Grant Marmion said that the banner size states 4x10, but the university doesn't have that capability. The capacity they can make is 3x8 feet. Roberts thinks that butcher paper is 4 feet wide and it might be inconvenient for candidates to cut the paper. Duot dittoed. Celis said that he will discuss with Marmion, Rosenberg and the Publicity Center. Celis said that there are a few changes that he would like made before next week. Page 2 section 1.B.2. will be reworded to make it clear that candidates must use the official petition form. The next changes would be to include deadlines for the Initiatives and Referenda language submission to the Board. This will help make the process clear and transparent. Items would have to be turned in on March 5th to allow for review at the last two scheduled meetings of the Board for the quarter. This will allow for petition pickup before the filing period ends. Celis said that a lot of changes proposed by the committee and Senate were out of concerns from last year. Polling stations were added in again. Celis feels that it is their responsibility to provide access to Elections. Savinski dittoed. Stickney found section 3.9.C.1 about the privacy of voters confusing. Celis said that it was possible to hit the back button on the internet and view someone's vote. Marmion left the provision in there for the legality of this because people could press charges after the appeals panel review. Celis confirmed that Referenda questions must be in the form of a yes or no. Duot asked if they would be hiring people to staff the voting booths. Marmion has been working on recruiting and hopes to staff both Red Square and South Campus. Duot asked if they could create a job description for this so that people can add it to their resumes. Celis said that they would need to look at all of the committee members if they were to do this, because they are also volunteers who could benefit from job descriptions. He doesn't feel this is necessary and they can still write it in a list of volunteer positions on their resume. Stickney had concerns about Section 1.I.D.3 because he feels it is loose enough that someone could claim attendance at an athletic event. Marmion said that they are trying to make it a little more lenient, but it is still at his discretion as Elections Coordinator. Schuster suggests modifying to be “participants” in events, as a member of a team. Roberts said that they include Departmental Related Activities Committee because it covers plays, dance recitals, Model UN, Forensics debates, etc. Celis will look at this and try to come up with better language. Bill Campbell has concerns about events only being excused if set prior to the Election Code. He thinks that there could be commitments made in early March before Election Packets are available that should still be excused. Stickney thinks that this should be limited because these jobs are important and time consuming. Marmion thinks changing the language to “prior commitment” from “date was set prior to” allows for commitments that might not have a date set yet, this provides lenience without opening it up for last minute plans. Stickney thinks that it says that their commitment is more important than going through the process to serve the student body. Celis dittoed. Campbell thinks that the people running for the Board should be keeping their commitments. He feels that there is room for interpretation of the Election Coordinator. Duot said that they need to consider circumstances including students who serve in the military for example. Celis has taken notes and will come up with some alternative language and asked people to speak to him and Marmion throughout the week. Roberts page 5 4.a.2 she has a concern about how strong the language is where it says “instruct” the Board. She feels that this is a strong statement, and she doesn’t feel that it is appropriate to have initiatives be strictly binding. This is because more information can come to light after the fact and the Board has more context that could play into the final product based on the recommendation of the student body. Stickney an Duot dittoed.
