

“Summer Hours for Club Coordinator”

Proposed Motions: Approve the Club Coordinator Job Description with an additional 30 hours in the summer with the stipulation that availability for 30 summer hours not be inquired after or used as a determining factor for this position during the 2013 hiring process.”

Sponsor: Vice President for Activities

Persons of Contact: VP for Activities, Casey Hayden, Club Coordinator

Date: April 2013

Rationale

- 1) getting trained up enough to be a resource and leader for other Club Hub staff and club students from Day 1 of fall quarter, and to be an effective OrgSync Admin
- 2) actually acting as an OrgSync Admin to help process some club renewal requests
- 3) executing event planning and promotion tasks for AS Club Kickoff and Red Square Info Fair.

1) Training Component (7 – 12 hours):

- Spend 5 - 8 hours with Student Activities Advisor to receive training on the OrgSync system (functionality and Admin responsibilities)
- Spend 2 – 4 hours meeting with AS VP for Activities and Stud. Act. Advisor to learn about recent history of the Club Activities Office and strategic directions underway. This includes training on the proper workflow between the Club Coordinator, the VP, the Asst. Business Director, and the Club Support Specialists. It would be beneficial to have this clarified before AS Training and the hourly workers begin their term so the Club Coordinator can be a voice of clarity for the other employees rather than no one but the Stud. Act. Advisor having the clear vision of the structure and workflow.

2) Serving as OrgSync Admin (2 – 5 hours)

- Assist the Stud. Act. Advisor with the processing of Club Renewal Requests through OrgSync

3) Event Planning Component (15 – 20 hours)

- Reserve date and location for Club Kickoff (this is the mandatory all-club training and orientation event usually in the first week of October)
- Work with Stud. Act. Advisor to create event budget (the Club Coordinator is now the Budget Authority for this account, and in the past the Advisor has had to commit funds to certain event elements without the student B.A. being present)
- Work with Stud. Act. Advisor to determine content of the Kickoff, what sessions are essential and which ones might be quality enhancements, and begin identifying presenters for these sessions. (Note: This year, with the Club Coordinator coming in at the AS Training start date, Kickoff had been nearly 100% solidified and he still needed so much training that Kickoff was a training event for him too. The intent would be for the Club Coordinator to be prepared to be an authoritative resource to the clubs right from the time of their introduction).
- Begin the printed program/schedule for Kickoff which includes session descriptions, locations, and agenda for the event as well as staff bio information.
- Do some advance planning of annual Club Activities Office events to go ahead and reserve the space and set dates that can be promoted at Kickoff to all the clubs (this would be a new enhancement that we haven't done before).
- Complete an ASERT (AS Event Request) Form and Publicity Request Form, both to practically help plan and promote the Kickoff, but also as a first-hand training experience.
- Meet with VU Event Services to communicate event logistical and equipment needs.
