

Associated Students of Western Washington University
DRAFT TBD Committee Charge & Charter
May 2015

I. CHARGE

The TBD will evaluate the Associated Students of Western Washington University's structure. The goal of this committee is to understand why students don't get involved in the Associated Students, how we can create pipelines of opportunities for students to become leaders, increase student representation, ways to improve how the Associated Students tells the AS story and highlight the student experiences. This committee could consult with the SPAC and Budget Committee as they see necessary. The committee timeline would include three phases. The first phase is a learning phase in which committee members gauge student opinion and do research to further understand the AS structure. The second phase would be a synthesis phase, in which they could compile their information and analyze. The third phase would be the output phase in which they could bring an initial recommendation to the board. The committee will give updates to the ASWWU Board of Directors on progress with desired initial recommendation in Spring 2016.
