

Associated Students of Western Washington University
Underrepresented Student Employment Committee Charge & Charter
July 2016

I. CHARGE

To actively advance the AS Strategic Plan focus on inclusion by assessing the AS employment experience for students from under-represented groups to insure equal opportunity in hiring and a positive work environment. In particular the committee will:

- Establish and review recommendations on social issues within the Associated Student (AS) of Western Washington University.
- Liaison with the AS Personnel Office regarding the recruitment and hiring practices to insure the broadest possible participation in the AS employment opportunities.
- Consider all aspects of AS employment to support a positive work experience for students from under-represented groups. Consider training/development experiences as well as working environment in different offices in the AS for AS employees that will best support a culture of inclusion through the development of cultural competency skills and practices.
- Provide recommendation to the AS Personnel Office, As Personnel committee, and AS Board, as appropriate, regarding the listed elements.
