

A.S. Child Development Center Data

We employ both work study and departmentally funded student employees as childcare assistants in the classrooms, offering learning and experiences that support their career choices. We collaborate with the Woodring Early Childhood Education Department to provide internship, practicum, as well as observation for class, including ECE Environment Class, and ECE Creativity and Play. We also enable other academic departments to place students for projects related to young children, such as Environmental Studies, Art Department, Leadership Studies, Engineering and Design.

Year	Student Employee	Student Volunteer	ECE Intern	ECE Practicum	Other ECE	Other WWU Student
2014-15	29	9	4	12	6	20
2015-16	23	12	5	13	7	25
2016-17	35	7	4	13	7	25

We serve a total of 59 children each academic quarter. Priority is given to student families up to 40% of capacity. Students' need for childcare vary from year to year and it has been steadily increasing since last year.
